The provisions of this Article shall mutatis mutandis apply to debentures of the Company.

CALLS

16. The Directors may from time to time and subject to Section 91 of the Act make such calls as they think fit upon the members in respect of all moneys unpaid on the shares held by them respectively and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed time and each member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the times and places appointed by the directors. A call may be made payable by installments. The Directors may, if they think fit, subject to the provisions of Section 92 of the Act, agree to and receive from any member willing to advance the same whole or any part of the moneys due upon the shares held by him beyond the sums actually called for, and upon the amount so paid or satisfied in advance, or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the shares in respect of which such advance has been made, the Company may pay interest at such rate, as the member paying such sum in advance and the Directors agree upon provided that money paid in advance of calls shall not confer a right to participate in profits or dividend. The Directors may at any time repay the amount so advanced.

The members shall not be entitled to any voting rights in respect of the moneys so paid by him until the same would but for such payment, become presently payable.

The provisions of these Articles shall mutatis mutandis apply to the calls on debentures of the Company.

17. A call shall be deemed to have been made at the time when resolution of the Directors authorising such call was passed and may be made payable by members on the Register of Members on a subsequent date to be specified by the Directors.
18. Fifteen days' notice at least shall be given by the Company of every call made payable otherwise than on allotment specifying the time and place of payment:

Provided that before the time for payment of such call the Directors may by notice in writing to the members, revoke the same.
19. The Directors may, from time to time at their discretion extend the time fixed for the payment of any call, uniformly for all shareholders and may extend such time as to all or any of the members.

20. If by the terms of issue of any share or otherwise, any amount is made payable on allotment at any fixed time or by installments at fixed times, (whether on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium), every such amount or installment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Directors and of which due notice has been given, and all the provisions herein contained in respect of calls shall relate to such amount or installments accordingly.
21. If the sum payable in respect of any call or installment be not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof the holder for the time being or allottee of the share in respect of which a call shall have been made or the installment be due shall pay interest for the same at such rate as the Directors shall fix from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of actual payment but the Directors may waive payment of such interest wholly or in part.
22. Neither a judgment nor a decree in favour of the Company for calls or other moneys due in respect of any shares nor any part payment or satisfaction thereof nor the receipt by the Company of a portion of any money which shall from time to time be due from any member in respect of any shares either by way of principal or interest nor any indulgence granted by the Company in respect of payment of such money shall preclude the forfeiture of such shares as herein provided.
23. On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought by the Company against any member of his legal representative for the recovery of any money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of any shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the member in respect of whose shares the money is sought to be recovered, appears entered on the Register of Members as the holder or one of the holders, at or subsequently to the date at which the money sought to be recovered is allegedly to have become due, of the shares in respect of which such money is sought to be recovered, that the resolution making the call is duly recorded in the Minute Books and that notice of such call was duly given to the members sued in pursuance of these presents and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Director who made such calls or any other matter whatsoever but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.

"Monies paid in advance of calls shall not in respect thereof, confer a right to dividend or to participate in the profits of the Company."

LIEN

24. Fully paid shares shall be free from all lien. In case of partly paid shares, the Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon such shares registered in the name of member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof, for all moneys (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares and such lien shall extend to all dividends from time to time declared in respect of such shares.

The Board may, however, at any time, declare any share to be wholly or partly exempt from the provisions of this Article.

25. The Company may sell in such manner as the Board thinks fit any shares on which the Company has a lien but no sale shall be made until the expiration of fourteen days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of such amount in respect of which the lien exists has been given to the registered holder for the time being of the share or to the person entitled for the time being of the share or to the person entitled to the share by reason of his death or insolvency. The Board may appoint a person to effect the sale and transfer.
26. The net proceeds of the sale shall be applied in or towards payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable. The residue, if any, shall be paid to the person entitled to the shares so sold. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares and he shall not be bound to see the application of the purchase money nor shall his title to the shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the sale.
27. Subject to Section 84 of the Act and the rules made there under and subject to all other applicable provisions, guidelines on the subject and the listing agreement that the company may enter into with one or more stock exchange or stock exchanges, where any share/debenture under the powers of the company in that behalf herein contained is sold by the Board and the certificate in respect thereof has not been delivered up to the Company by the former holder of such share/debenture, the Board may issue a new certificate for such share/debenture distinguishing it in such manner as it may think fit from the certificate not so delivered up.

SURRENDER AND FORFEITURE OF SHARES

28. If a member fails to pay, any call or installment of a call or any other sum or sums on the shares due and payable by such member, on or before the last day appointed for the payment thereof, the Board may at any time thereafter during such time as the call or any part of such call or installment of sums remain unpaid, serve a notice on him or on the person (if any) entitled to shares by transmission requiring payment of so much of the amount as is unpaid together with any interest which may have accrued thereon. The Board may accept in the name of and for the benefit of the Company and upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed, the surrender of any shares liable to forfeiture and in so far as the law permits, of any other shares.
29. The notice shall name the place or places on and at which, and a further day (not earlier than the expiration of fourteen days from the date of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made. The notice shall detail the amount which is due and payable on the shares and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed the shares will be liable to be forfeited.

30. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any of the shares in respect of which such notice has been given may, at any time thereafter before payment of all calls or installment, interest and expenses or other money due in respect thereof, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends and bonus declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture.
31. A forfeited or surrendered share may be sold or otherwise disposed off on such terms and in such manner as the Board may think fit and any time before a sale or disposition, the forfeiture may be annulled on such terms as the Board may think fit.
32. Any member whose shares have been forfeited shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company, all calls, installments, interest, expenses and other moneys owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of the forfeiture together with interest thereon from the time of forfeiture until payment, at such rate not exceeding 18 per cent per annum as the Directors may determine, and the Directors may enforce the payment of the whole or a portion thereof if they think fit but shall not be under any obligation, to do so.
33. A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director of the Company and that a share in the Company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share and that declaration and the receipts of the Company for consideration, if any, given for the shares on the sale or disposal thereof, shall constitute a good title to the share and the person to whom the share is sold, or disposed off shall be registered as the holder of the share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money (if any) nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
34. The provision of these presents as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which by the terms of issue of a share become payable at a fixed time whether on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium or otherwise as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

The Company shall within one month from the date on which the instrument of transfer or intimation of such transmission as the case may be was delivered to the company, send to the transferee and transferor notice of the refusal to register such transfer provided that registration of transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor being either alone or jointly with any other person or persons is or are indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except where the Company has a lien on the shares. Transfer of shares / debentures shall not be refused on the ground that the number of shares sought to be transferred are not in a particular number or lot. Nothing in Section 108, 109 and 110 of the Act shall prejudice this power to refuse to register the transfer of or the transmission by operation of law of the right to any shares or interests of a member in or debentures of the Company. '

(* Altered by inserting new clause 37 vide special resolution passed at an Annual General Meeting held on 27th September 2006)

38. The instrument of the transfer shall after registration be retained by the Company and shall remain in its custody. All instruments of transfer which the Directors may decline to register shall on demand be returned to the persons depositing the same. The Directors may cause to be destroyed all transfer deeds lying with the Company after such period as they may determine.

39. No fee shall be charged for registration of transfer, transmission, Probate, Succession Certificate and Letters of Administration, Certificate of Death or Marriage, Power of Attorney or similar other document.

40. The Company shall incur no liability or responsibility whatsoever in consequence of its registering or giving effect to any transfer of shares made or purporting to be made by any apparent legal owner thereof (as shown or appearing in the Register of Members) to the prejudice of persons having or claiming any equitable right title or interest to or in the same shares, notwithstanding that the Company may have had notice of such equitable, right, title or interest or notice or referred thereto in any book of the Company.

41. Transfer/transmission of shares and sub-division/ consolidation of shares into marketable lots will be effected by the Company free of cost and the Directors shall not charge any fees for the same.

TRANSMISSION OF SHARES.

- 42.
- i.) On the death of a member, the survivor or survivors where the member was a joint holder, and his legal representatives where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognized by the company as having any title to his interest in the shares.
 - ii.) Nothing in clause (1) shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.
- 43.
- i.) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either –
 - (a) To be registered himself as holder of the share; or
 - (b) To make such transfer of the share as the deceased or insolvent member could have made.
 - ii.) The Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had transferred the share before his death or insolvency.
- 44.
- i.) If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered as holder of the share himself, he shall deliver or send to the company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects
 - ii.) If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share, he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of the share.
 - iii.) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these regulations relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or insolvency of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.
45. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company :

Provided that the Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

DEBENTURE

46. Every debenture or other instrument issued by the Company for securing the payment of money may be so framed that the moneys hereby secured shall be assigned free from any equities between the Company and the persons to whom the same may be issued. Any debenture, debenture stock, bonds or other instruments or securities may be issued at a discount, premium or otherwise and may be issued on condition that they shall be convertible into any shares of any denomination, and with any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, drawing and allotment of shares or otherwise. Provided that the debentures with a right to conversion into or allotment of shares shall not be issued without consent of the Company in general meeting and no debentures shall be issued with any voting rights.
47. The provisions herein contained relating to transfer and transmission shall also apply to debentures in the same manner as they apply to shares.

48. (1) For the purpose of this Article :
- 'Beneficial Owner' means a person who opts to hold his securities with a Depository, and whose name is recorded as such with a Depository;
 - 'SEBI' means the Securities and Exchange Board of India;
 - 'Depository' means a Company formed and registered under the Companies Act, 1956 and which has been granted a certificate of registration to act as a depository under the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992; and
 - 'Security' means such security as may be specified by SEBI from time to time.
- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, the Company shall be entitled to dematerialise its existing shares, debentures and other securities, rematerialise its shares, debentures and other securities held in the Depository and/or offer its fresh shares and debentures and other securities in a dematerialised form pursuant to the Depositories Act, 1996 and the rules framed there under, if any.

- (3) Every person subscribing to securities offered by the Company, and every Member or Debenture holder shall have the option to either hold the securities in the form of security certificates or to hold the securities with a Depository when permitted. Where any holder of securities surrenders his Certificate of securities held in the Company in accordance with Section 6 of the Depositories Act, 1996 and the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Depositories and Participants) Regulations, 1996, the Company shall cancel the certificate and substitute in its records the name of the relevant Depository and inform the Depository, accordingly. The Company shall maintain a record of certificates of securities that have been so dematerialised and destroyed. Such persons who hold their securities with a Depository can at any time opt out of the Depository, if permitted by law, and the Company shall in such manner and within such time as prescribed by law, issue to such persons the requisite certificates of securities.

If a person opts to hold his security with a depository, the Company shall intimate such depository the details of allotment of the Security, and on receipt of the information, the depository shall enter in its record the name of the allottee as the beneficial owner of the security.

- (4) All securities held by a depository shall be dematerialised and shall be in a fungible form. Nothing contained in Sections 153, 153 A, 153 B, 187 B, 187 C and 372 A of the Act shall apply to a depository in respect of the securities held by it on behalf of the beneficial owners.
- (5)
- a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Act or this Article, a depository shall be deemed to be the registered owner for the purpose of effecting transfer of ownership of security on behalf of the beneficial owners.
 - b) Save as otherwise provided in (a) above, the depository as the registered owner of the securities shall not have any voting rights or any other rights in respect of the securities held by it.
 - c) The beneficial owner of securities shall be entitled to all the rights and benefits and be subject to all the liabilities in respect of his securities which are held by a depository.
- (6) Notwithstanding anything in the Act of this Article to the contrary, where securities are held in a depository, the records of the beneficial ownership may be served by such depository on the Company by means of electronic mode or by delivery of floppies or discs.
- (7) For the purpose of this Article, the Registers and Index of Members and Debenture holders shall be deemed to include the Registers and Index of beneficial owners maintained under the Depositories Act, 1996 by every Depository in respect of securities issued by the Company.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

49. The Company may from time to time by Ordinary Resolution in General Meeting, increase the authorised share capital by such sum to be divided into shares of such amount and with such rights as the resolution shall prescribe.
50. The new shares shall be subject to the same provisions with reference to the payment of calls, lien, transfer, transmission, forfeiture and otherwise as the shares in the original share capital.
51. The Company may by Ordinary Resolution:
 - a) Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares.
 - b) Sub-divide the whole or any part of its share capital into shares of smaller amount that is fixed by the Memorandum of Association subject nevertheless to the provisions of clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section 94 of the Act.
 - c) Cancel any shares which, at the date of passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.
52. i) Subject to the provisions of Section 80 and 80A of the Act and subject to the provisions on which any shares may have been issued the Company may issue preference shares which are, or at the option of the Company are liable, to be redeemed:

Provided that:

- a) no such shares shall be redeemed except out of profits of the Company which would otherwise be available for dividend or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for the purpose of the redemption.;
 - b) no such shares shall be redeemed unless they are fully paid;
 - c) the premium, if any, payable on redemption shall have been provided for out of the profits of the Company or out of the Company's share premium account, before the shares are redeemed;
 - d) where any such shares are redeemed otherwise than out of the proceeds of a fresh issue, there shall out of profits which would otherwise have been available for dividend, be transferred to a reserve fund, to be called 'the Capital Redemption Reserve Account', a sum equal to the nominal amount of the shares redeemed; and the provisions of the Act relating to the reduction of the share capital of a Company shall, except as provided in this article apply as if the capital redemption reserve account were paid-up share capital of the Company.
- ii) Subject to the provisions of Section 80 and 80A of the Act and subject to the provisions on which any shares may have been issued, the redemption of preference shares may be effected on such terms and in such manner as may be provided by the Articles of the Company or the terms and conditions of their issue and subject thereto in such manner as the Directors may think fit.

- iii) The redemption of preference shares under this article by the Company shall not be taken as reducing the amount of its authorised share capital.
- iv) Where in pursuance of this article, the Company has redeemed or is about to redeem any preference shares, it shall have power to issue shares up to the nominal amount of the shares redeemed or to be redeemed as if those shares have never been issued; and accordingly the share capital of the Company shall not, for the purpose of calculating the fees payable under Section 601, be deemed to be increased by the issue of shares in pursuance of this clause.

Provided that where new shares are issued before the redemption of the old shares, the new shares shall not so far as relates to stamp duty be deemed to have been issued in pursuance of this clause unless the old shares are redeemed within one month after the issue of the new shares.

- v) The Capital Redemption Reserve Account may, notwithstanding anything in this article, be applied by the Company in paying up unissued shares of the Company to be issued to members of the Company as fully paid bonus shares.

CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

- 53. The company may, by ordinary resolution, - (a) Convert any paid-up shares into stock; and
(b) Reconvert any stock into paid-up shares of any denomination.
- 54. The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as, and subject to the same regulations under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit :

Provided that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so however that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

- 55. The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company, and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose; but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

56. Such of the regulations of the company (other than those relating to share warrants), as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words "share" and "shareholder" in those regulations shall include "stock" and "stockholder" respectively.
